The JOY that Comes from Christ

Don't you just love the words of John 1:14? "The Word became flesh and made His dwelling among us. We have seen His glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth."

As we rejoice over the birth of our Savior, it's such a blessing to know God fills our hearts with joy everlasting – today and every day. His faithfulness sustains us through every circumstance and His grace offers renewal in our lives... as well as in the lives of those we serve.

While we do provide Christmas gifts to the guests in our care, what's most important is that they know about Jesus' sacrifice and the gift of salvation that is freely given to us all.

Thanks to your friendship, we're able to share the "good tidings of great joy for all people" during the holidays and throughout the year. Your fervent prayers and ongoing support help restore lives – and wrap local men, women and children in God's loving embrace.

Just like Kandice, whose story we've shared on page 3, God still works miracles in the lives of people all around us.

This Christmas, I hope your heart overflows with peace, joy and love as your blessings abound.

Thank you,

Brad Hopkins
Executive Director

As a little girl, Kandice experienced horrors no child should be forced to endure. Beatings by her stepfather and mistreatment by her mother. "She would feed me out of dog food bowls in my bedroom," she says.

Her trauma led to low self-esteem that followed her into adulthood and began a vicious cycle of substance abuse... dysfunctional relationships... and unstable employment. Finally she found herself homeless. "I was on the streets, bouncing around from couch to couch. I didn't have anywhere to go," she says. "I was empty inside." That's when she turned to our ministry.

"When I walked through these doors, I had the most amazing peace – indescribable peace – that I had ever had in my life."

Kandice describes herself as spiritually, physically, emotionally and mentally unstable when she joined our Discipleship Recovery Program. But through our faith-based classes and the guidance of our godly staff, "The joy of the Lord came into my heart and I learned to fully surrender – to lay it all at the cross."

She is encouraged by Christian fellowship with other guests in work therapy at our Rescued Treasures Thrift store. "We watch each other grow and change and become the best version of ourselves," she says.

As for her future? Kandice finds peace in writing about the trials of her life and the Lord's healing love. She is also interested in becoming a wildland firefighter. But she won't be disappointed if God has other plans. "God gives us the desires of our hearts, but He also changes our desires to match His will for our lives. So I'm keeping an open mind and an open heart."

Kandice is excited to celebrate the restored hope she has been given this Christmas – and wants YOU to know just how grateful she is. "Since coming to WRM, I have new confidence. I have peace. I have joy. I have more self-worth. I feel like I have a purpose. It's amazing."
